MATERNITY LEAVE

All female Employees are entitled to 52 weeks Maternity Leave, which consists of 9 months ordinary paid leave (if eligible) and an optional 3-months additional unpaid leave.

Statutory Maternity Pay will be paid for the first 9 months if the Employee's average weekly wage exceeds the National Insurance lower earnings limit and has been employed for a period of 6 months at the 15th week prior to the due date of the birth of their child. Employees need to discuss all arrangements with their line manager prior to beginning this leave, including providing their line manager ~~Clerk/Council with~~ a copy of the MAT B1 by week 16 of the pregnancy.

The remaining three months Additional Maternity Leave is optional and unpaid.

Employees will need to give the ~~Clerk/Council~~ 8 weeks prior notice if they wish to return to work early from Maternity Leave within the first nine months.

Employees are required to give the ~~Clerk/Council~~ twenty-eight days' notice prior to their intended return date from ordinary Maternity leave at the end of nine months. No notice is required from Employees who have taken 12 months Maternity Leave.

Employees on Maternity Leave will be able to arrange up to 10 'Keep in Touch Days' with ~~Management~~ their line manager, to return to work for short periods during their leave and receive their normal rate of pay on these working days, without damaging their entitlement to Maternity Pay.

ADOPTION LEAVE

Employees with more than six months continuous employment (by the week in which an approved match with the child is made) are entitled to 39 weeks paid Adoption Leave. Employees with more than 12 months continuous employment (by the week an approved match with the child is made) will be able to take an additional 13 weeks of adoption leave, and return to work at any time up until the end of 52 weeks from the Sunday before the child was placed for adoption. Statutory Adoption Pay (SAP) is payable for a maximum of 39 weeks.

Whilst on adoption leave, 'Keeping in Touch' days will allow employees to do up to 10 days work (with pay at their normal rate) without ending that leave or affecting the right to Statutory Maternity Pay. Work can include training and any part of a day equates to one day.

Employees with more than six months continuous employment are entitled to attend up to 2 adoption appointments with their partner after they have been matched with a child.

BREASTFEEDING / EXPRESSING MILK POLICY

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to set out the Council's stance on the support given to new mothers who return to work after maternity leave whilst continuing to breastfeed or express milk.

Legal background

The Council takes its obligations under health and safety legislation seriously and views the welfare of its employees as a priority. An element of this is to carry out risk assessments where it is deemed that an employee's role may pose a risk to their welfare. Risk assessments will always be carried out in respect of employees who have returned from maternity leave and are breastfeeding/expressing milk.

Risks identified must be addressed. The Council will seek ways to eliminate the risk fully or alternatively a reduction in the risk where this is acceptable. Adjustments will be made to the employee's role in order to eliminate or reduce the risk for the period that the employee continues to breastfeed/express milk.

If no adjustments can be made which have the desired effect, the Council will seek suitable alternative work to be offered to the employee on a temporary basis until the risks are removed or breastfeeding/expressing milk ends. Maternity suspension on full pay will be the last resort should no alternative work be available.

The risk assessment will focus on all relevant areas including physical, biological and chemical agents and any operational methods adopted by the Council.

Provision for expressing milk at work

Employees who are breastfeeding/expressing milk at work should, wherever possible, do this during their contractual rest breaks (e.g. lunchtime). If this is not possible a time should be agreed between the employee and the line manager.

Private facilities for breastfeeding/expressing milk will be provided. If milk is to be kept in a communal fridge, it must have a clearly visible label.

Time off to breast feed

An employee may make a request for flexible working in order to take time off for the purposes of breastfeeding her baby. ~~This may be the case if the baby is on the premises at the Council crèche, for example).~~ However, the Council policy is to agree a permanent change to working hours as a result of a flexible working request and therefore this may not be in the employee's best interests.

Any other arrangements regarding time off for the employee to breastfeed must be discussed and agreed in advance with her line manager. The arrangements must be reviewed and a date of the review set if working hours have been reduced as part of the arrangements.

Dismissal

Dismissal for reasons related to breastfeeding or expressing milk is automatically unfair. In addition, a woman must not suffer any detriment because she is breastfeeding or expressing milk.

PARENTAL LEAVE

Employees with more than 12 months continuous employment and who are parents of children aged under 18 years old are entitled to 18 weeks unpaid leave; pro rata for part time staff.

This entitlement can be taken as a minimum of one week per annum, up to a maximum of four weeks per annum.

When taking Parental Leave, the Council needs to be given the same period of notice as for holidays, and informed that it is specifically Parental Leave that you are taking.

TIME OFF FOR DEPENDENTS

Employees are entitled to reasonable unpaid time off where:

1. A dependant is ill
2. Death of a dependant
3. Disruption occurs to the care of a dependant
4. Unexpected occurrences to your child

~~Drayton Parish~~The Council's Management recognises a dependant as: an Employee's children, partner, parent, or other member of their immediate family. Should an Employee care for other dependants who do not fall within this definition, they should discuss the matter with the ~~Clerk/Personnel Committee~~their line manager.

The Council recognises that most of these events can occur without a great deal of warning; however, we request that Employees provide as much notice as possible in the event of taking time off for dependants.

Bereavement Leave

All Employees are entitled to up to two weeks Bereavement Leave in the event of the death of a dependent child aged from week 24 of the pregnancy up to 18 years old.

For those with 26 weeks continuous employment payment will be equal to that of Statutory Maternity Pay.

Carers Leave

Employees are entitled to up to 4 weeks unpaid leave per annum to care for a Dependent with long term care needs.

Request can be for the whole 4 weeks at one time or in separate weeks, as well as individual or half days.

Requests to take this leave must be made in writing, giving the Council at least twice as much notice as the amount of leave requested.

If the Council is unable to accommodate the dates requested, the Employee will be informed before it was due to begin and it will be rescheduled by mutual agreement within one month of the initial Employee request.

The Council recognises a dependent for the purposes of this leave as an Employee's child, partner, parent of other member of the immediate family who has long term care needs.

PATERNITY LEAVE

New Fathers with more than six months continuous employment are entitled to two weeks paid paternity leave, paid at the same rate as SMP.

This leave must be taken within the first eight weeks of the child's birth.

Employees are required to show their ~~line manager-Council's Management~~ a relevant MAT B1 when making a request to take this leave.

SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE

Parents who both have 26 weeks or more continuous employment, and who earn above the National Insurance Lower Earnings Limit, can take SPL.

Both Parents can share a total of 37 weeks statutory paid leave and 12 week's unpaid leave, following their child's birth.

Mothers must take two weeks compulsory Maternity leave immediately after the birth, (four weeks for manual workers). Following that compulsory period, both Parents can request dates to take leave totalling 37 weeks paid (35 for manual workers) and 12 weeks unpaid.

Leave can be taken by both Parents at the same time, or in alternating periods.

To take leave:

1. Both Parents must qualify in terms of earnings and length of service. An Employee's partner must have been an employed or self-employed earner in Great Britain for a total 26 weeks (not necessarily continuously) in the period of 66 weeks leading up to the week in which the child is due.
2. The Mother must give her Employer eight weeks' notice that she is ending her Maternity Leave. This can be done as early as eight weeks before the birth, (starting from February 2014).
3. The Council requires eight weeks prior notice of the dates an Employee wishes to take SPL.
4. The Council requires the following evidence that an Employee's Partner/Spouse is also entitled to SPL:
 - The Partner/Spouse's name.
 - Their National Insurance number.
 - Copies of the Partner/Spouse's pay slips for the past eight weeks.
 - A letter from the Partner/Spouse's Employer to confirm that they are entitled to SPL.
5. The Council will automatically allow any requests for just one continuous period of leave.
6. If an Employee requests two or more separate/discontinuous periods of SPL, the Council can discuss dates with the Employee, which are unacceptable for business reasons.
7. The Council will discuss problem dates with an Employee during the first two weeks of the eight-week notice period.
8. If agreement cannot be reached, the Employee will be entitled to one continuous period of SPL, starting from the date the discontinuous leave request was due to start.
9. Parents are paid at the same rate as Statutory Maternity Pay when taking SPL.

FLEXIBLE WORKING TIME REQUESTS

Employees are able to request changes to their start and finish times, amount of working hours each week and where they work from day one of their employment.

The Council will not be obliged to accept this request; however refusal will be based on one or more of the following:

1. The additional costs to the Council.
2. Reduced ability to meet the needs of the Council, its Members and the public.
3. Inability to share the person's workload amongst other staff.
4. Potentially damaging effects upon the quality of work produced.
5. Potentially damaging effects upon performance.
6. Inability to recruit extra staff to provide cover.

Employees are able to submit up to two requests within a rolling twelve-month period. Requests must be submitted to ~~either the clerk or Chair of the relevant Committee/Full Council:the line manager.~~ Requests to change working hours must be made in writing.

Upon receipt of a request the Council will initiate a two-to-three-week consultation period with the Employee to assess how their request impacts on the six points detailed above.

Should the outcome of the consultation process be to reject the Employee's request for one or more of the above six statutory reasons, the Employee is able to appeal to the Chair of the ~~Full Council:Staffing Committee.~~

The process of addressing a request and providing a written response should take no more than two months.

GRIEVANCES & DISCIPLINE

Informal Grievances

If you are unhappy with an element of your employment with the Council, you should initially discuss the matter with ~~the Clerk/Chair of HR~~your line manager on an informal basis.

If you are uncomfortable about talking to ~~the Clerk/Chair of HR~~your line manager, you should approach the Chair of the ~~Council~~Staffing Committee.

Employee Conduct / Performance

Should the Council be unhappy with either an Employee's conduct or performance, they will initially discuss their concerns with that Employee on an informal basis.

The purpose of this meeting will be to provide guidance and support to address the problem. For this reason, notes will be taken during this meeting, and all present will be asked to sign the notes.

A Panel from the Council and the Employee will attend this meeting. There will be no entitlement to be accompanied.

Mediation

In the event that an Employee is unhappy with the outcome of the Informal Grievance Procedure, or either party do not feel that performance / conduct issues are being addressed effectively, either the Employee or the Council request that the matter be subjected to mediation.

This will involve the use of a third-party Mediator. In its simplest form, Mediation will involve the Mediator talking to either party individually, to listen to their side of the issue. If the Mediator feels that a resolution to the problem is possible, a meeting will be arranged between all parties at which the Mediator will set out their assessment of the issues and invite both parties to reach their own resolution.

The resultant action plan should have the agreement and support of both parties, be set out in writing and be signed by all involved in the Mediation process.

Formal Grievances

In the case of Grievances not being fully resolved at the informal stage, a formal written approach is required to the Council. As a consequence, a formal Grievance Hearing will be held to address the matter, within twenty-eight days of receipt of the Employee's letter.

The Hearing will be conducted by a Panel of between two and three Elected Members who will be appointed by the ~~Council or the HR~~Staffing Committee.

At this meeting Employees are entitled – and encouraged – to be accompanied by a work colleague from the Council or Trade Union Representative. Employees will be informed in writing of the outcome of the meeting within seven days.

If the Employee making the grievance is unhappy with the response to the meeting, they can issue an appeal, in writing. This Appeal must be submitted within seven days of receiving the response to the original grievance meeting.

Please Note

Any Formal Grievance complaint, which concerns the conduct of a Councillor, will be addressed as a Code of Conduct complaint by the Council and will be referred to the District Council's Monitoring Officer. This Council will not address the Employee's Formal Grievance against an Elected Member. It will be addressed by the Monitoring Officer.

The Process

1. Upon receipt of any complaint, the ~~Council or appropriate Staffing~~ Committee should conduct an informal investigatory meeting with the Employee to establish if there are any issues that can be addressed by the Council, or is it solely concerned with the Code of Conduct. This should be arranged within seven days of receipt of the complaint.
2. If there are non-Code related issues, such as work environment, or hours of work, the Council could conduct a Formal or Informal Grievance process to address those problems.
3. However, Code of Conduct related complaints could be referred to the Monitoring Officer by the Council, in accordance with guidance from the Committee on Standards in Public Life's.
4. The Council should keep the Employee fully informed of the progress of the complaint.

Formal Discipline (for Employees with two years or more continuous employment)

If an issue regarding an Employees conduct, behaviour or performance is not fully addressed by informal discussions, the Council will pursue the matter through its formal Disciplinary Procedures. Typical examples of areas of concern may be poor performance, unacceptable and unexplained absenteeism, poor conduct and behaviour at work, or lack of capability by an Employee to carry out their job.

This is a four-step procedure, which increases in the severity of its outcome if the issue is not resolved at the previous step. Each step involves a formal meeting between the affected Employee and a Disciplinary Panel, at which the Employee will be given every opportunity to put their side of the issue. Meetings will be conducted as soon as reasonably possible after the incident(s), which are being investigated to ensure that facts and witness statements are clear and up to date. At this meeting Employees are entitled - and encouraged - to be accompanied by a work colleague from the Council, or Trade Union/SLCC Representative.

If the allegation of misconduct is proven, the meeting may result in the following action being taken by the Council Management against the Employee:

STEP No	ACTION TAKEN	LIVE PERIOD	MANAGER RESPONSIBLE
1	Formal Oral Warning	Six months	Disciplinary Panel
2	Formal Written Warning	Twelve months	Disciplinary Panel
3	Final Written Warning	Twelve months	Disciplinary Panel
4	Termination of Contract of Employment	N/A	Disciplinary Panel

Particularly severe acts of indiscipline may result in the Management Council bypassing Steps 1 and 2.

Employees will be informed by letter that they are required to attend a formal disciplinary meeting. This letter will include details of the allegation they are to answer, the date, time and venue of the meeting, and also inform them of their right to be accompanied by a work colleague from the Council, or Trade Union Representative if they hold such membership.

Gross Misconduct

Acts of Gross Misconduct, if proven after an appropriate investigation and a Disciplinary Hearing, will result in Dismissal without notice.

Employees accused of Gross Misconduct will be suspended on full pay and receive a written invitation to a Formal Disciplinary Hearing, giving them details of the allegation they are to answer, the date, time and venue of the meeting, and also inform them of their right to be accompanied by a work colleague from the Council or trade union/SLCC representative. The letter will provide a minimum of 2 working days prior notice to the meeting.

The Council recognises the following as acts of Gross Misconduct. (This is not an exhaustive list):

1. Theft.
2. Abusive or threatening behaviour of any nature.
3. Being under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
4. Dishonesty in dealings with Management.
5. Sexist, racist or any other behaviour against an individual, which could be classed as creating a hostile, intimidating or threatening environment.
6. Breach of confidentiality.

7. Failing to carry out reasonable Management instructions.
8. Fighting and acts of aggression.
9. Deliberately damaging Council property.
10. Deliberate breaches of Council Health and Safety procedures.
11. Unauthorised access to Council computer files, software or any other such breach of confidentiality.

Employees who have been dismissed for acts of Gross Misconduct do have a right to Appeal against their dismissal. Appeals should be submitted within a reasonable timescale following the dismissal, and addressed to the Chair of the Council. A reasonable timescale would normally be no longer than a week following the dismissal. Employees submitting an appeal must make it clear that they are appealing against the decision to dismiss them, and set out the reasons for their appeal.

Once the ~~Management Council~~ has received notice of the Employee's decision to Appeal, they will follow the Appeal Procedure detailed below.

Appeal Procedure

Employees have the right to Appeal against a decision made at any Formal Disciplinary step. Appeals should be made to the Chair of the Council in writing, and submitted within seven working days of the disciplinary meeting having occurred.

A Formal Appeal Hearing, involving the Employee and an Appeal Panel, will be held within fourteen days of receipt of the appeal request. At this meeting, Employees are entitled - and encouraged - to be accompanied by a work colleague from the Council or a Trade Union/SLCC representative.

The Employee making the appeal will be informed in writing of the outcome of the Appeal Hearing within seven days.

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENTS

Either the Council or the ~~Clerk~~ Employee may wish to terminate their employment with the Council by way of a Settlement Agreement.

The Council may wish to address problems of poor performance, conduct or any other reasonable employment problem by offering an Employee who has been employed for two years or more, a mutually agreed cash incentive to terminate their employment:

- The ~~Clerk~~ Employee is not obliged to accept this offer.
- If they do wish to consider an offer, they have ten days to do so.
- An Employee who has been offered a Settlement Agreement must be able to take legal advice on the offer, paid for by the Council at a reasonable expense. Agreements will not be implemented unless endorsed by the Employee's Legal Adviser in the form of an Adviser's Certificate.
- Once an offer has been accepted by both parties the employment contract will terminate with full and final effect, without prejudice to either party, and a mutually agreed sum of money will be paid at an agreed date to the Employee.
- The offer of a Settlement Agreement is made by the Council on a Without Prejudice basis.

REDUNDANCY

It is the aim of the Council to avoid making Employees redundant wherever possible. Ideally, this will be achieved through finding an alternative position within the Council.

Should redundancy be unavoidable, the Council will follow the following procedure:

1. Issue a Notice of Threat of Redundancy; this will include notice of a period of consultation and the date Consultation will begin.
2. Provide those individuals affected with a period of Consultation. During this period the Council will discuss with the affected Employees:
 - Finding alternative work within the Council.
 - Reasons for the redundancy.
 - Calculating the amount of redundancy compensation Employees with two or more years continuous employment are entitled to, based on the Statutory Formula.

Statutory Formula
Employees Aged 18 – 21 years old	½ week's pay for every year employed under the age of 22
Employees Aged 22 – 40 years old	1 week's pay for every year employed over the age of 21
Employees Aged 41 + years old	1 ½ weeks' pay for every year employed over the age of 40
Maximum weekly wage limit - £700	Up to a maximum of twenty years

3. After the period of Consultation, a Formal Meeting will be arranged to discuss the outcome of the Consultation. Individuals will be invited by letter to this meeting and informed of their right to be accompanied.
4. Conduct an Appeal against the Formal Decision, should the affected Employee wish to do so. Appeals must be submitted in writing within 7 days of the Formal Meeting.
5. Employees on or returning from Maternity/Adoption leave will be given priority option of being appointed to any suitable alternative positions for up to 18 months following the birth/adoption of their child.
